AMOUNT STOLEN

$40,000

Express Robbery Reported to be Greater Than at First Stated

MCLAUGHLIN MISSING

The sum of $40,000 it is now alleged was taken by Harry Thomas McLaughlin, the Adams Express company messenger who disappeared on May 6, instead of $15,000 as was first reported. It was said at the time of the robbery that McLaughlin took only part of the money from the package entrusted to his care, but it was learned definitely in Pittsburgh from representatives of the banks from which the money was stolen that McLaughlin took the entire amount in the package.

The Adams Express company has, settled with the banks and it was reported that the amount paid was $40,000. The operatives of the Pinkerton National Detective agency, of Pittsburgh, are seeking information which would assist them in running down the missing express messenger. While the express company was responsible for the loss to the banks, this concern in turn will hold the bonding company surety for McLaughlin had no confederate in the robbery.

The detectives do not believe that McLaughlin has hidden the money or entrusted its safe keeping to any friends. It has been learned that he was closemouthed, sober and clear headed. With those characteristics the detectives are not inclined to believe that he will make any confidants who would likely aid in his arrest.

LOCK 4 CARNIVAL CLOSES TONIGHT

Tonight the Hatch Shows, which have been holding a carnival at North Charleroi under the auspices of the volunteer fire department of that borough will close. The week's engagement has been successful in every respect and the various contests ended satisfactorily. Large crowds have been in attendance and the closing night will likely bring the largest attendance of the week. The weather has been generally favorable and the rains of the week have not materially interfered with the attendance.

Strike Still In Progress

Miners at Diamond Mine at West Brownsville Want Mine Foreman Reinstated

Miners at the Diamond mine of the Diamond Coal company located at West Brownsville are still on strike. They walked out two weeks ago after Mine Foreman Gallagher had been discharged. It is now declared that unless a settlement is quickly effected that miners employed at other mines of the Diamond Coal company will strike in sympathy. Mine Foreman Gallagher was a popular man among the miners, who can see no real reason why he should have been discharged. They demand the discharge of the superintendent.

Dora Found Not Guilty

But Wireton Woman Must Pay the Costs For What Court Says She Didn't Do

Dora Gilmore, who was charged with keeping a disorderly house at Wireton, was tried before Judge McConnell in the Westmoreland county court at Greensburg Thursday. The private prosecutor, R. M. Andrews, testified that the woman bore a bad reputation, and other witnesses testified that men were seen to go in and come out of the houses at night. Her house had been raided several several times, witnesses testified, and that girls with light attire were found inside with men on one occasion. The defendant was not asked to testify in her own behalf. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, but the woman was directed to pay the costs. After her arrest she is said to have left Wireton and moved to Maple Creek.

NO PACKETS RUNNING ON THE MONONGAHELA

Service That Was Once Important Adjunct to Travel and Trade Entirely Discontinued-- I. C. Woodward Being Repaired

Packet service has been discontinued entirely and finally on the Monongahela river, according to rivermen, marking the passing of one of the most important adjuncts to travel and trade of a few years ago. The last remaining packet which was in the service last year, the ancient I. C. Woodward, was sold recently at a United States Marshall's sale and is now lying at the Pittsburgh wharf, undergoing extensive repairs before being placed in the excursion trade under a new name.

Navigation on the Monongahela river, which at one time was a part of the greatest highway between the East and the West, has been slowly declining for a number of years, and particularly since the completion of the railroads to Brownsville and to points beyond.

As long as the railroads did not extend their tracks above Brownsville there remained a large stretch of country which the packets served, and which brought a large amount of profitable business to them. The beginning of the coal development, however, in the sixth pool, which was about 15 years ago, marked the beginning of the end of the profitable business which the packet company had heretofore enjoyed.

PICNIC SEASON TO BE STARTED

Monessen Schools to Invade Eldora Park Next Week-- Announcements Made

For the first picnic of the picnic season the Monessen schools will invade Eldora park on Friday next. Prof. H. E. Gress of the Monessen schools, together with Monessen school authorities and the management of the park have been actively preparing for this big event. It is believed that the Monessen picnic will be one of the distinct features of the entire park season.

Special arrangements are being made for transporting the school children to and from the park. They will leave Monessen early Friday morning in special cars provided by the Eldora Amusement company, and will return late in the evening by the same method. At the park the amusements will be operated in full blast. An extra large corps of men and women will be on hand to look after the entertainment of the children. Each child will be presented with a certain number of tickets for the various amusements.

Week after next there will be two big school picnics, that to be given by Claude E. Towner for Monongahela children on May 29 and that of the Donora schools, which will be held on May 27, two days earlier than the Monongahela picnic. Later announcements will be made of the arrangements for these events.

The first attraction of unusual interest at the park will be that of tomorrow, May 18, of the Louhi band of Monessen. This organization will give two concerts, afternoon and evening. The band is an organization that has been in existence for 17 years. It is composed of thorough musicians and ranks as one of the best along the Monongahela valley. All the members are Finlanders of the best class and W. F. Stenberg a talented musician is the director.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins will begin their summer dancing school at the park. This feature proved exceedingly popular last year and it is believed it will this season.

The Delmar club of Monessen will on Tuesday night begin their series of dances, which will be held every Tuesday night throughout the season.

Bond Issue at Donora

Pittsburg Firm Successful Bidder on $100,000 Flotation for New School

Bonds were sold on an issue of $100,000 by the school board of the Donora school district Friday night to the Washington Investment company of Pittsburgh. The only other bidder was J. S. & W. S. Kuhn of Pittsburgh. The successful bidder will pay par and accrued interest with a premium of $565.75. The bonds were issued and sold by the school district in order to obtain funds for a much needed school building the plans for which will be secured at once and the contract awarded. It is planned to make the new building the best in Donora and one of the best along the Monongahela valley.

Green County Coal is Sold

Nearly $100,000 Worth of Acreage Changes Hands in Various Townships

Coal land approximating a total value of about $100,000 changed hands in Greene county this week, and deeds have been recorded. The largest sale was that of William F. Patterson of Waynesburg to R. L. Rush of Connellsville, 180 acres of coal in Wayne and Gilmore townships at $275 per acre, the total consideration being $49,500.

E. D. Patterson of Waynesburg has purchased 51 acres of coal and surface in Whiteley township two miles west of Newton from Mrs. Thomas Grove of Rogesville and T. B. Moore, of Ohio, at $360 an acre, the total consideration being $12,360. An interest in 23 tracts of coal in Franklin and Wayne townships was sold by Hon. D. S. Walton of Waynesburg to Albert Rush for a consideration of $4,500. An interest in 55.8 acres in Springhill was sold by L. G. Gray of West Alexander to I. N. Cornwall of Gilmore township for $775.

A large sale was that of T. Riley Huffman of Waynesburg, George Huffman, of Jackson township, J. H. Wise and W. E. Minor of Pittsburgh to E. E. Morris of Waynesburg of 147 acres of coal in Aleppo township. The total consideration is not given.

In one instance J. V. Thompson of Uniontown is a purchaser, having bought from T. J. Wisecarver of Waynesburg a trifle more than 5 acres in Morris township for $970. Mrs. Mary Sayres Koehne has purchased one-half interest in 86 acres of coal in Aleppo township from James E. Sayres executor of the estate of the late E. M. Sayres for $1,305.22.

BOURNE TO BE A VISITOR

Oregon Senator May Come With Penrose to This County

PENROSE ON STUMP

It is stated that when Senator Boies Penrose visits Washington next Thursday to speak at the farm institute, he will be accompanied by Former Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon, who is making a tour of the country in the interests of good roads. In the party will likely be Gov. Tener and Highway Commissioner Edward M. Bigelow, who will advocate the passage of the constitutional amendment by the voters this fall for the bond issue of $50,000,000 by the state to improve the highways.

Incidentally it is expected that Senator Penrose who is making a great fight for the retention of the protective tariff, will speak on that subject.

A movement for good roads was started at a meeting of the Fayette County Auto club at the Pennsylvania hotel in South Brownsville Friday evening. The bad roads situation was sounded by Samuel E. ### PUBLIC TRUST.

"As a believer in the democratic theory of representative government, I desire to announce it as a settled principle, not to be questioned in this country, that a platform is binding upon every honest man who runs upon that platform."

That was the keynote of Secretary of State William J. Bryan's speech in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives Tuesday night, says the Uniontown Herald. His address was delivered on the unanimous invitation of both chambers of the Legislature, and before him sat progressive and reactionary Republicans and Democrats.

"Bryan is right. That is what platforms are for. Contrary to the conclusions of too many politicians, the people remember platform pledges, and know whether or not they are kept. A common political error is forgetfulness of the fact that representative government owes its source to the people, and that once office is attained it is the public interest and not for the sole use and behoof of the office holder, his relatives and friends.

"It has been the wont of many a hitherto successful politician to launch platform pledges to derision. But that has come to be regarded as a form of duplicity dangerous to longer pursue. When special interests want something done or something let alone they maintain lobbies to persuade legislatures and they provide money to make the persuasion effective. But when the great body of the people who comprise the consumers, the travelers, the patrons of these special interests want something done or something let alone, that is well enough as it is, the people lack the organization that provides lobbies, and wholesale persuasion with a cash backing would sooner or later lead to anarchy. That is why pledges are so soon forgotten.

"The sum and substance of this great question lies in the basic principle of honesty. There used to be such a word as 'honor.' In chival-rous days men fought in defense of it. In these days, however, the mention of the word invites reproach.
This is deplorable, but it is true.
What American needs is a reawakening of its civic pride to the extent that good, clean government should command the same defense in times of peace that the nation would command in times of war, and that the man who wilfully violates the letter or spirit of the law in so far as that violation strikes a blow at the purity or efficacy of representative government should, whether convicted or not, be stigmatized as a traitor, ostracized as a coward, and considered unfit to mingle with honorable men."

NOTHING DOING.

One of the perpetual sources of complaint among the farmers of Washington county is the dog menace, which has practically reduced the breeding of sheep one-half in the county. Because of the thousands of worthless curs that are permitted to run unrestricted—while every bit as dangerous—as a pack of wolves, a once thriving industry has almost been eliminated. This howl about the dog menace is maintained regularly, yet the present session of the legislature is nearing an end without any attempt on the part of the farmers to secure legislation that will eliminate the evil. With representatives ready to aid the farmers in every conceivable way, it seems incredible that no man or set of men had enough public spirit or enterprise to take action in removing an evil that is both expensive and dangerous.

Not only were the farmers indifferent in this matter, but the urban dwellers who regularly undergo a mad dog scare every year also ignored the opportunity to secure immunity from this peril. When the legislature is not in session and the mad dog scare is on, there is much talk of legislation to not permit dogs to run at large, but when the scare is over the peril is forgotten. This is but typical of public sentiment in matters where all are interested, but no particular one is concerned vitally. That is why the interested and selfish always get favorable legislation. They go after it at the proper time and no one is on the job to oppose them.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Hustling when hustling is for a prize is some hustle.

The trouble is absent mindedness seldom helps a man forget his troubles.

The quiet restful topic in the department of agriculture is not weather.

Some people think that a scientist is to be judged by the thickness of the glasses he wears.

The doctors think President Wilson should have more recreation. He doesn't consider shaking down plums is the kind he needs however.

Some towns seem to think a good morals efficiency committee should be composed of men who have no morals.

Bravely the English militants are trying to keep on the first page. At that their peaceful American sister suffragettes have them beaten.

Abe Martin says, "The worst thing about a clear conscience is that you can't hear a burglar."

Flashes of inspiration do not seem as frequent in life as the genuine workday noise of a typewriter.

Those few persons in the world who never tried to operate a typewriter can find consolation in the thought that President Wilson doesn't always use a machine in writing out speeches.

One of the most noted of futurist paintings, it is stated is a picture of a nude woman going down stairs.
Now we have it. She has fallen just out of sight and the conglomeration that looks like the back yard to a garbage furnace is merely the stairs that she has broken tumbling in ruins
to the ground.

The ununderstandable part is why Congress tackled the tariff problem until they had heard from this year's graduates.

PICKED UP IN PASSING AMONG THE CHURCHES

A practical housekeeper, submits
the following "Hints for Housewives," which she declares are every bit as useful as much of the stuff that appears along that line in the woman's column of newspapers and in the various ladies' journals, which contain hints and recipes that are fearfully
and wonderfully devised:

"Do not throw away your old banana skins. Save them until you have about 200 of them. Then scrape them carefully and sew them together. They make beautiful and inexpensive rugs.

"Housewives ignore the useful scrubbing-brush and neglect it until it becomes an eyesore. Gild the old scrubbing brushes and paint flowers or landscapes on the handles. Tie a bow of pink ribbon at each end and the brush becomes ornamental as well as useful.

"When boiling cabbage always place a pound of limburger cheese in the oven and let it bake and the unpleasant odor of the cabbage will not be detected."

A small girl, the daughter of a resident of the hill, teased her father recently to buy her some article that she had seen in one of the stores and to which she took a fancy. So insistant was she that finally her father said:

"I can't get you that now, dear, I haven't the money."

"Well," returned the little maiden,
"if you weren't always paying mother you'd have some money one in a while."

Over in another county—not Washington of course—some of the newspaper fraternity tell a story on
a brother editor, who is not overly particularly neat and orderly in regard to the appearance of his office.
"A tall lank farmer, from away back in the interior, evidently, opened the door of the office one day, poked his head inside and gazed about the premises," says the narrator.

"Hello!" said the editor, "Come in."
"Nope, haven't time," returned the countryman. "Just thought I'd peep in and see what a newspaper office looked like. Looks like our garret at home, only wuss."

"A thing of beauty is a joy for-

Independent Telephone In- stalled at Pennsylvania Rail- road Yards at West Brownsville

Last Monday the Tri-State Telephone Company of Brownsville installed two telephones at West Brownsville Junction and this move has already proven a boon to the railroaders on the Pennsylvania lines who are employed in the yards at that place.

Heretofore the employes have been compelled to have two telephones in their homes, as many did or take their chances on getting calls. The resulting hardship can easily be realized. The Union had no connection with the offices and the Bell was practically useless for local work.
The resulting expense meant a big slice from the wages of employes and the action of the Independents will mean a saving of $18 per year or more to all local railroaders, of which there are twenty or more, living in California and vicinity.
Moreover there are scores of rail-roaders living along the river who depend upon the telephone for orders.
The benefit will extend to Charleroi, Belle Vernon, Fayette City and Roscoe for in all of these places the Independent is the recognized local telephone. The P. & L. E. employes of the above places get their orders through the Independent line.

Pennsylvania Railroad employes living in Charleroi, Lock 4 and Speers can be connected with the West Brownsville Engine House and the yard office by the Charleroi Independent Telephone Co., without any additional charge. 252-t3

HOW THIS WOMAN FOUND HEALTH

Would not give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
for All Rest of Medicine
in the World.

Utica, Ohio.—"I suffered everything from a female weakness after baby came. I had numb
spells and was dizzy,
had black spots before my eyes, my back ached and I
was so weak I could hardly stand up. My
face was yellow,
even my fingernails
were colorless and I had displacement. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable

Compound and now I am stout, well and healthy. I can do all my own work and can walk to town and back and not get tired. I would not give my Vegetable Compound for all the rest of the medicines in the world. I tried doctor's medicines and they did me no good."—Mrs.
MARY EARLEWINE, R.F.D. No. 3, Utica, Ohio.

Another Case.

Nebo, Ill.—"I was bothered for ten years with female troubles and the doctors did not help me. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and every month I had to spend a few days in bed. I read so many letters about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound curing female troubles that I got a bottle of it. It did me more good than anything else I ever took and now it has cured me. I feel better than I have for years and tell everybody what the Compound has done for me. I believe I would not be living to-day but for that."
—Mrs. HETTIE GREENSTREET, Nebo, Illinois.

TO CHARLEROI'S THOUSANDS
Mr. Harry DeHaven, the manager of the Moore Shoe Store, 502 Fallowfield avenue, received orders Tuesday from the head of the store to throw every pair of shoes and oxfords on special sale, regardless of cost or profits. Mr. Moore's buyer has just returned from the east, among the great shoe factories where he has purchased many thousands of pairs of shoes, and the Charleroi store has received many thousands of dollars worth of shoes. No ordinary shoe dealer having one or two stores could begin to touch the prices Mr. Moore received on the goods, and in order to make friends with Charleroi's thousands we have come to the conclusion to give to the public the full benefit of our buyers great master work. Now Mr. De-Haven has arranged to have plenty of sales force so every one can be waited on perfectly. But try not to come too late. As this is the first real shoe sale of the season the store will certainly be packed. Sale starts at 8
a. m. Saturday, May 17, 1913. 252-t2

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

THE COYLE—CHARLEROI

With a two reel wild west Bison picture Wednesday, "The Fighting Chaplain," when the wild west show declared that he beat out the material declared that he beat out the material wild west show in every feature. He says he had more Indians, more horses and more soldiers in action than any troupe on the road, and these pulled off more exciting adventures than they did on the show lot. His show was so realistic that the one of the managers of the wild west show, Young Buffalo and his wife did Mr. Coyle the honor to visit the pictorial wild west, as did many others of the troupe, and to remain interested spectators. There was a world of good things in the weekly repertoire. "Some Doings on Lonesome Ranch," "The Leader of His Flock," in two reels, "The Troubadour of the Ranch," "A Daughter's Sacrifice," in two reels and "Paying for Silence," were some of the good dramas. Manage Coyle also scored a point by being prepared to open his show Wednesday forenoon, when outside crowds thronged the street waiting for the arrival of the wild west show which did not arrive until 11 o'clock. "Bred in the Bone," a three reel Bison for Friday and "Burglarizing Billy" and "Mathilde," in two reels for Saturday completes the bill. Some extraordinary features are booked for next week at the Coyle.

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI

Owing to numerous attractions this week the vaudeville the last three days, which has been a distinguishing feature at the Palace, was omitted. What was lacking in this respect, however, was made up in dramas. One of these was "The Human Target," an Ambrosio feature in two reels. This contained a variety of action, which for rapidity and surprises was a perfect avalanche. "The Stolen Treaty" was another of those international dramas, where diplomacy and intrigue figure in the mad rush for national supremacy. This contained sixty scenes abounding in dramatic action, which uncovered a thrilling plot. The Pathe Weekly Friday night, in view of so many unusual events and disasters, is particularly interesting just now, as it shows what actually occurred in the great and stirring events which have been transpiring lately. For Saturday a drama of unusual interest has been secured, "At the Risk of Her Life," which with the regular service will present a most pleasing week end attraction. Monday's attraction is "Baloo, the Demon Baboon," which is supposedly a dramatization of Edgar Allan Poe's thrilling mystery story, "The Murder of the Rue Morgue." This is in three reels, and is one of the most wonderful feature films ever presented.

THE STAR—CHARLEROI

Notwithstanding numerous counter attractions, the Star Theatre has not only had an excellent repertoire of attractions this week, but has exhibited to its usual clientele of patrons. Some remarkably good motion pictures were in the week's bill, and they received the usual appreciation. Show day instead of cutting down the patronage increased it, as hundreds of out of town visitors took advantage of the opportunity to pay a visit to the Star, where they could be highly entertained as well as get a good rest. One of the strong features of Wednesday was the Mutual Weekly, which showed a large and varied panorama of world-wide scenes and events. "Won on the Road," a motion drama of striking interest was another strong feature of the week. "The She Wolf," a strange story of the wilds of the north, was still another, while "An Eastern Flower," a splendid drama featuring Warner Kerrigan and Pauline Bush was a most enjoyable emotional drama, with an abundance of human interest and dramatic action. "The Graters," was a striking demonstration of how municipal government is subverted to vicious interests, while "Calamity Ann's Trust" was a screamingly funny story. "The Locomotives" in three reels is a big feature of the week, and the bill closes with a strong program for Saturday.

THE GRAND—PITTSBURG

Sam and Kitty Morton read the bill of refined vaudeville at the Grand next week. Under the name of the Four Mortons, their son, Paul, and daughter, Clara, completing the quartet, they have played all over the world before enormous audiences and with universal success. Paul and Clara, having recently married and entered the professional list with their life partners, the mother and father are now literally "Back Where They Started." That, is the title of the sketch which they will play in the Grand next week. It is a group of songs with patter and dances. Sam Morton personates a bluff, somewhat blatant, middle-aged Irishman who has broken into society, and Kitty plays his gentle but none the less amusing helpmeet.

Interest in the program of the forthcoming week will probably be shared between the Mortons and Three Travilla Brothers, with their diving seal. These young men are deep sea pearl divers from the Catalina Islands and have only recently entered into the vaudeville field. They have trained a sea lion to give a most remarkable exhibition. A huge tank, especially constructed for the purpose, furnishes the means of exploiting the pearl divers and the seal in a series of spectacular exploits beneath the water. In a comedy way Frank Milton and DeLong Sisters will vie the headlines. They are to play a little sketch entitled "Twenty Minutes Layover at Alfalfa Junction." Leroy, Wilson and Tom have their local premier in an act blending acrobatics with comedy chatter. They are called "The three crazy men from Frisco." These are but four of the nine or ten feature attractions which will comprise the Grand's program next week. It will be supplemented by a selection of first class moving pictures.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG

The first two weeks of the Aborn English Grand Opera Company's season at the Alvin Theatre have passed with almost gratifying increase of patrons over the same period of their season a year ago, and prospects are good for a large attendance during the final two weeks of their engagement.

The coming week will be varied by the introduction of two operas instead of the usual one, and there will be ten performances instead of eight. Bizet's "Carmen" will be given for six nights and for the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

The two extra matinees, scheduled for Tuesday and Friday afternoons, are added for the presentation again of Humperdick's charming fairy opera, "Hansel and Gretel." This quaint offering with its many beautiful melodies and splendid score is particularly attractive to children and for this reason the two matinees of "Hansel and Gretel" will start at 3:15 p. m., an hour later than the usual matinee time, so that pupils in the schools can arrange to attend.

Some of the foremost favorites of the casts of the first two weeks will remain for important roles in "Carmen" and "Hansel and Gretel." The complete list includes Jayne Herbert, Margaret Jarman, Mabel Siemohn, Albert Anadi, Giuseppe Agostini, Louis Daniel, Joseph Parsons, S. Paul Vernon, Philip Fein, Zoe Fulton, Harriett Kuttner, Lillian Robinson and others, with Max Fichandler conducting and Frank Ranney as stage director.

AMOUNT STOLEN $40,000

McLAUGHLIN MISSING

The sum of $40,000 it is now alleged was taken by Harry Thomas McLaughlin, the Adams Express company messenger who disappeared on May 6, instead of $15,000 as was first reported. It was said at the time of the robbery that McLaughlin took only part of the money from the package entrusted to his care, but it was learned definitely in Pittsburgh from representatives of the banks from which the money was stolen that McLaughlin took the entire amount in the package.

The Adams Express company has settled with the banks and it was reported that the amount paid was $40,000. The operatives of the Pinkerton National Detective agency, of Pittsburgh, are seeking information which would assist them in running down the missing express messenger.

While the express company was responsible for the loss to the banks, this concern in turn will hold the bonding company surety for McLaughlin had no comederate in the robbery.

The detectives do not believe that McLaughlin has hidden the money or entrusted its safe keeping to any friends. It has been learned that he was closemouthed, sober and clear headed. With those characteristics the detectives are not inclined to believe that he will make any confidants who would likely aid in his arrest.

LOCK 4 CARNIVAL CLOSES TONIGHT

Tonight the Hatch Shows, which have been holding a carnival at North Charleroi under the auspices of the volunteer fire department of that borough will close. The week's engagement has been successful in every respect and the various contests ended satisfactorily. Large crowds have been in attendance and the closing night will likely bring the largest attendance of the week. The weather has been generally favorable and the rains of the week have not materially interfered with the attendance.

Strike Still In Progress

Miners at the Diamond mine of the Diamond Coal company located at West Brownsville are still on strike. They waited out two weeks ago after Mine Foreman Gallagher had been discharged. It is now declared that unless a settlement is quickly effected that miners employed at other mines of the Diamond Coal company will strike in sympathy. Mine Foreman Gallagher was a popular man among the miners, who can see no real reason why he should have been discharged. They demand the discharge of the superintendent.

Dora Found Not Guilty

Dora Gilmore, who was charged with keeping a disorderly house at Wireton, was tried before Judge McConnell in the Westmoreland county court at Greensburg Thursday. The private prosecutor, R. M. Andrews, testified that the woman bore a bad reputation, and other witnesses testified that men were seen to go in and come out of the houses at night. Her house had been raided several times, witnesses testified, and that girls with light attire were found inside with men on one occasion. The defendant was not asked to testify in her own behalf.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, but the woman was directed to pay the costs. After her arrest she is said to have left Wireton and moved to Maple Creek.

NO PACKETS RUNNING ON THE MONONGAHELA

Service That Was Once Important Adjunct to Travel and Trade Entirely Discontinued-- I. C. Woodward Being Repaired

Packet service has been discontinued entirely and finally on the Monongahela river, according to rivermen, marking the passing of one of the most important adjuncts to travel and trade of a few years ago. The last remaining packet which was in the service last year, the ancient I. C. Woodward, was sold recently at a United States Marshall's sale and is now lying at the Pittsburgh wharf, undergoing extensive repairs before being placed in the excursion trade under a new name.

Navigation on the Monongahela river, which at one time was a part of the greatest highway between the East and the West, has been slowly declining for a number of years, and particularly since the completion of the railroads to Brownsville and to points beyond.

As long as the railroads did not extend their tracks above Brownsville there remained a large stretch of country which the packets served, and which brought a large amount of profitable business to them. The beginning of the coal development, however, in the sixth pool, which was about 15 years ago, marked the beginning of the end of the profitable business which the packet company had heretofore enjoyed.

The first packet to operate on the Monongahela river was the "Consol," service being started in about 1844. Boats Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 were started early in history. A number of boats succeeded this one, some of the latter and more remembered among them being the "Adam Jacobs," and the "James G. Blaine." It is possible that packet service may again be started on the Monongahela to carry freight, for which it alone would be available.

PICNIC SEASON TO BE STARTED

Monessen Schools to Invade Large Building to be Erected Eldora Park Next Week-- Announcements Made to Start Soon

For the first picnic of the picnic season the Monessen schools will invade Eldora park on Friday next. Prof. H. E. Gress of the Monessen schools, together with Monessen school authorities and the management of the park have been actively preparing for this big event. It is believed that the Monessen picnic will be one of the distinct features of the entire park season.

Special arrangements are being made for transporting the school children to and from the park. They will leave Monessen early Friday morning in special cars provided by the Eldora Amusement company, and will return late in the evening by the same method. At the park the amusements will be operated in full blast. An extra large corps of men and women will be on hand to look after the entertainment of the children. Each child will be presented with a certain number of tickets for the various amusements.

Week after next there will be two big school picnics, that to be given by Claude E. Towner for Monongahela children on May 29 and that of the Donora schools, which will be held on May 27, two days earlier than the Monongahela picnic. Later announcements will be made of the arrangements for these events.

The first attraction of unusual interest at the park will be that of tomorrow, May 18, of the Louth band of Monessen. This organization will give two concerts, afternoon and evening. The band is an organization that has been in existence for 17 years. It is composed of thorough musicians and ranks as one of the best along the Monongahela valley. All the members are Finlanders of the best class and W. F. Stenberg a talented musician is the director.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins will begin their summer dancing school at the park. This feature proved exceedingly popular last year and it is believed it will this season.

The Delmar club of Monessen will on Tuesday night begin their series of dances, which will be held every Tuesday night throughout the season.

Bond Issue at Donora

Bonds were sold on an issue of $100,000 by the school board of the Donora school district Friday night to the Washington Investment company of Pittsburgh. The only other bidder was J. S. & W. S. Kuhn of Pittsburgh. The successful bidder will pay par and accrued interest with a premium of $565.75. The bonds were issued and sold by the school district in order to obtain funds for a much needed school building the plans for which will be secured at once and the contract awarded. It is planned to make the new building the best in Donora and one of the best along the Monongahela valley.

Green County Coal is Sold

Coal land approximating a total value of about $100,000 changed hands in Greene county this week, and deeds have been recorded. The largest sale was that of William F. Patterson of Waynesburg to R. L. Rush of Connelville, 180 acres of coal in Wayne and Gilmore townships at $275 per acre, the total consideration being $49,500.

E. D. Patterson of Waynesburg has purchased 51 acres of coal and surface in Whiteley township two miles west of Newton from Mrs. Thomas Grove of Rogersville and T. B. Moore, of Ohio, at $360 an acre, the total consideration being $12,360. An interest in 23 tracts of coal in Franklin and Wayne townships was sold by Hon. P. S. Walton of Waynesburg to Albert Rush for a consideration of $4,500. An interest in 55.8 acres in Springhill was sold by L. G. Gray of West Alexander to L. N. Cornwall of Gilmore township for $775.

A large sale was that of T. Riley Huffman of Waynesburg, George Huffman, of Jackson township, J. H. Wise and W. E. Minor of Pittsburgh to E. E. Morris of Waynesburg of 147 acres of coal in Alleppo township. The total consideration is not given.

In one instance J. V. Thompson of Uniontown is a purchaser, having bought from T. J. Wisecarver of Waynesburg a trifle more than 5 acres in Morris township for $970. Mrs. Mary Sayres Koehne has purchased one-half interest in 56 acres of coal in Alleppo township from James E. Sayres executor of the estate of the late E. M. Sayres for $4,305.22.

PUBLIC TRUST.
theory of representative government,
I desire to announce it as a settled
principle, not to be questioned in
this country, that a platform is bind-
upon that platform."

That was the keynote of Secretary
of State William J. Bryan's speech
in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives Tuesday night, says the
delivered on the unanimous invitation of both chambers of the Legis-
and reactionary Republicans and Democrats.

forms are for. Contrary to the con-
forgetfulness of the fact that representative government owes its source
the office holder, his relative, and friends.

hitherto successful politician to laugh
sue. When special interests want
these special interests want some-
thing done or something let alone
people lack the organization that provides lobbies, and wholesale persuasion with a cash backing would sooner
pledges are so soon forgotten.

great question lies in the basic prin-
such a word as 'honor.' In chival-rous days, men were expected to live up to it. In these days, however, the mention of the word invites reproach.
This is deplorable, but it is true.
What America needs is a reawaken-
of stress that the nation would com-

violation strikes a blow at the purity or efficiency of representative government should, whether convicted or not,
not be stigmatized as a traitor, ostracized as a coward, and considered unfit to mingle with honorable men."

One of the perpetual sources of
complaint among the farmers of Washington county is the dog men-
dangerous—as a pack of wolves, a
once thriving industry has almost
dog menace is maintained regularly,
the evil. With representatives ready
man or set of men had enough public spirit to bring forth a bill for removing an evil that is both expensive and dangerous.

it at the proper time and no one is on
the job to oppose them.

prize is some hustle.
The trouble is absent mindedness
troubles.

The quiet restful topic in the department of agriculture is not weather.

Some people think that a scient-
of the glasses he wears.

should have more recreation. He
is the kind he needs however.

moral efficiency committee should be composed of men who have no morals.

that their peaceful American sister
suffragettes have them beaten.

Abie Martin says "The worst thing

Flash of inspiration do not seem as ferocious in life as the genuine workday noise of a typewriter.

use a machine in writing out speeches.

a nude woman going down stairs.
Now we have it. She has fallen just out of sight and the complementation
that looks like the back yard to a
to the ground.

The understandable part is why Congress tackled the tariff problem
graduates.

the following hints for housewives,
useful as much of the stuff that ap-
and wonderfully devised:

"Do not throw away your old ba-
them carefully and sew them togeth-
er. They make beautiful and inexpensive rugs.

it becomes an eyesore. Gild the old
as useful.

be detected."

ident of the hill, teased her father re-
to which she took a fancy. So insist-ent was she that finally her father
said:

haven't the money."
"Well," returned the little maiden.
you'd have some money now in a while."

Over in another country—not Washington of course—some of the
gard to the appearance of his office.
back in the interior, evidently, opened the door of the office one day, peeked his head inside and gazed about

Independent Telephone In- stalled at Pennsylvania Rail- road Yards at Brownsville

Last Monday the Tri-State Tele-
stalled two telephones at West Brownsville Junction and this move
has already proven a boon to the
place.

Heretofore the employes have been
resulting hardship can easily be realized. The Union had no connection
practically useless for local work.
The resulting expense meant a big
mean a saving of 50 per cent or
which there are twenty or more, living in California and vicinity.
Moreover there are scores of rail-
roaders living along the river who depend upon the telephone for orders.
The benefit will extend to Charleroi,
Belle Vernon, Fayette City and Roscoe for in all of these places the Independent is the recognized local telephone. The P. & L. E. employes of
through the Independent line.

living in Charleroi, Lock 4 and Speers
can be connected with the West
yard office by the Charleroi Independ-
ditional charge. 252-43

HOW THIS WOMAN FOUND HEALTH

in the World.

from a female weakness after baby
spells and was dizzy,
fore my eyes, my
back ached and I
was so weak I could
hardly stand up. My
face was yellow,
even my fingernails
were colorless and I
took Lydia E. Pink-
ham's Vegetable
Compound and now I am stout, well and
tired. I would not give your Vegetable Compound for all the rest of the medicines in the world. I tried doctor's medicines and they did me no good."—Mrs.
MARY EARLEWINE, R.F.D. No. 2, Utica,
Ohio.

Nebo, Ill.—"I was bothered for ten
days in bed. I read so many letters about
pound curing female troubles that I got
would not be living to-day but for that."—Mrs. HERTIE GREENSTREET, Nebo, Illinois.

Mr. Harry DeHaven, the manager
of the Moore Shoe Store, 502 Fal-
lowfield avenue, received orders Tuesday from the head of the store to
fords on special sale, regardless of
cost or profits. Mr. Moore's buyer
has just returned from the east,
where he has purchased many thousands of pairs of shoes, and the Char-
with Charleroi's thousands we have

sale of the season the store will cer-

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI

With a two reel wild west Bison picture Wednesday. "The Fighting Chaplain," when the wild west show declared that he beat out the material wild west show in every feature. He says he had more Indians, more horses and more soldiers in action than any troupe on the road, and these pulled off more exciting adventures than they did on the show lot. His show was so realistic that the one of the managers of the wild west show, Young Buffalo and his wife did Mr. Coyle the honor to visit the pictorial show, and to remain interested spectators. There was a world of good things in the weekly repertoire. "Some Doings on Lonesome"

in two reels. "The Troubadour of the Ranch," "A Daughter's Sacrifice," in two reels and "Paying for Silence" were some of the good dramas. Man- age. Coyle also scored a point by being prepared to open his show Wednesday forenoon, when outside crowds thronged the street waiting for the arrival of the wild west show which did not arrive until 11 o'clock. "Bred in the Bone," a three reel Bison for Friday and "Burglarizing Billy" and "Mathilde," in two reels for Saturday completes the bill. Some extraordinary features are booked for next week at the Coyle.

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI

Owing to numerous attractions this week the vaudeville the last three days, which has been a distinguishing feature at the Palace, was omitted. What was lacking in this respect, however, was made up in dramas. One of these was "The Human Target," an Ambrosio feature in two reels. This contained a variety of action, which for rapidity and surprises was a perfect avalanche. "The Stolen Treaty" was another of those international dramas where diplomacy and intrigue figure in the mad rush for national supremacy. This contained sixty scenes abounding in dramatic action, which uncovered a thrilling plot. The Pathe Weekly Friday night, in view of so many unusual events and disasters, is particularly interesting just now, as it shows what actually occurred in the great and stirring events which have been transpiring lately. For Saturday a drama of unusual interest has been secured, "At the Risk of Her Life," which with the regular service will present a most pleasing week end attraction. Monday's attraction is "Baloo, the Demon Baboon," which is supposedly a dramatization of Edgar Allen Poe's thrilling mystery story, "The Murder of the Rue Morgue." This is in three reels, and is one of the most wonderful feature films ever presented.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI

Notwithstanding numerous counter attractions, the Star Theatre has not only had an excellent repertoire of attractions this week, but has exhibited to its usual clientele of patrons. Some remarkably good motion pictures were in the week's bill, and they received the usual appreciation. Show day instead of cutting down the patronage increased it, as hundreds of out of town visitors took advantage of the opportunity to pay a visit to the Star, where they could be highly entertained as well as get a good rest. One of the strong features of Wednesday was the Mutual Weekly, which showed a large and varied panorama of world-wide scenes and events. "War on the Road," a motion drama of striking interest was another strong feature of the week. "The She Wolf," a strange story of the wilds of the north, was still another, while "An Eastern Flower," a splendid drama featuring Warren Kerrigan and Pauline Bush was a most enjoyable emotional drama, with an abundance of human interest and dramatic action. "The Grangers," was a striking demonstration of new municipal government is subverted to vicious interests, while "Calamity Ann's Trust" was a screamingly funny story. "The Lonoclast," in three reels is a big feature of the week, and the bill closes with a strong program for Saturday.

THE GRAND-PITTSBURG.

Sam and Kitty Morton head the bill of refined vaudeville at the Grand next week. Under the name of the Four Mortons, their son, Paul, and daughter, Clara, completing the quartet, they have played all over the world before enormous audiences and with universal success. Paul and Clara, having recently married and entered the professional list with their life partners, the mother and father are now literally "Back Where They Started." That, is the title of the sketch which they will play in the Grand next week. It is a group of songs with patter and dances. Sam Morton personates a bluff, somewhat blattant, middle-aged Irishman who has broken into society, and Kitty plays his gentle but none the less amusing helpmeet.

Interest in the program of the forthcoming week will probably be shared between the Mortons and Three Travilla Brothers, with their diving seal. These young men are deep sea pearl divers from the Carolina Islands and have only recently entered into the vaudeville field. They have trained a sea lion to give a most remarkable exhibition. A huge tank, especially constructed for the purpose, furnishes the means of exploiting the pearl divers and the seal in a series of spectacular exploits beneath the water. In a comedy way Frank Milton and DeLong Sisters will vie the headliners. They are to play a little sketch entitled "Twenty Minutes Layover at Alfalfa Junction." LeRoy, Wilson and Tom have their local premier in an act blending acrobatics with comedy chatter. They are called "The three crazy men from Frisco." These are but four of the nine or ten feature attractions which will comprise the Grand's program next week. It will be supplemented by a selection of first class moving pictures.

THE ALVIN-PITTSBURG.

The first two weeks of the Aborn English Grand Opera Company's season at the Alvin Theatre have passed with almost gratifying increase of patrons over the same period of their season a year ago, and prospects are good for a large attendance during the final two weeks of their engagement.

The coming week will be varied by the introduction of two operas instead of the usual one, and there will be ten performances instead of eight. Bizet's "Carmen," will be given for six nights and for the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

The two extra matinees, scheduled for Tuesday and Friday afternoons, are added for the presentation again of Humperdinck's charming fairy opera, "Hansel and Gretel." This quaint offering with its many beautiful melodies and splendid score is particularly attractive to children and for this reason the two matinees of "Hansel and Gretel" will start at 3:15 p. m., an hour later than the usual matinee time, so that pupils in the schools can arrange to attend.

Some of the foremost favorites of the casts of the first two weeks will remain for important roles in "Carmen" and "Hansel and Gretel." The complete list includes Jayne Herbert, Margaret Jarman, Mabel Siemona, Albert Amadi, Giuseppe Agostini, Louis Daniel, Joseph Parsons, S. Paul Vernon, Philip Fein, Zoe Fulton, Harriett Kuttner, Lillian Robinson and others, with Max Fichandler conducting and Frank Ranney as stage director.

The genuine "KAYSER" Gloves cost no more than the ordinary ones, but they wear out at the finger tips, and bear that mark of assurance of quality and reliability—the name "KAYSER."
